Day 3

Eisenach

(B,D)

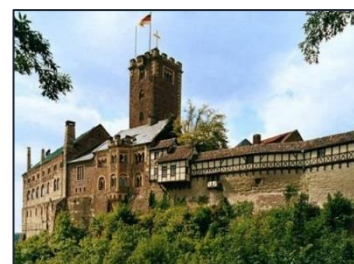

Breakfast at the hotel

Transfer to Eisenach. Visit one of the best-preserved medieval castles in Germany, Wartburg Castle, which looms over the city of Eisenach and is the site where Martin Luther translated the New Testament into German. At the castle, visit a museum which contains Reformation artifacts, including paintings, sculptures, furniture, and tapestries. A private worship service may be organized in the chapel of Wartburg Castle

Lunch, on own

Visit the childhood home of Martin Luther and birthplace of Johann Sebastian Bach. We will visit the Bachhaus museum which is dedicated to Bach's life and work. Also visit Lutherhaus, one of the oldest and picturesque buildings remaining in Eisenach and now a museum. We will also have time to explore the Marktplatz and visit the Georgenkirche, where Bach was baptized

Evening dinner and overnight

Day 4

Erfurt

(B,D)

Breakfast at the hotel

Transfer to Erfurt, nicknamed "Thuringian Rome" because of its many churches, chapels, and monasteries

Enjoy a walking tour through this richly beautiful, medieval city, to explore the Augustinian Monastery and see a Luther Exhibition showing restored monastic cells as they might have looked in Luther's time

Lunch, on own

See where Luther was ordained at St. Mary's Cathedral, an impressive Gothic cathedral perched on a hillside and containing some art masterpieces including the world's largest medieval free-swinging bell and a small altar of The Madonna and Child with Saints Catherine and Barbara by Lucas Cranach

Return to Eisenach for evening dinner and overnight

Day 5Eisleben*(B,D)

Breakfast at the hotel

Enjoy and Excursion to Eisleben. Martin Luther was born and died in the small city of Eisleben (Luther had a special affection for this city now officially known as “Luther-City Eisleben” Lutherstadt Eisleben). During our tour, we’ll have the honor of visiting Luther's birth house which is now a well-preserved museum

Lunch, on own

Visit the Church of St. Peter and Paul (also known as the Taufkirche or "baptism church"), where Martin Luther was baptized. The remains of the original baptismal font can still be seen inside the church. Also visit St. Andrew’s Church, where Luther preached his last sermon

Visit Halle, where we will visit the Bible Institution of Castein, known as the authority for revision of Luther’s Bibles

Transfer to Wittenberg for evening dinner and overnight

Day 6*Wittenberg*(B,D)

Breakfast at the hotel

Visit Schlosskirche (Castle Church) where Martin Luther nailed his 95 Theses, sparking the reformation. Also visit City Church (a twin-towered Gothic church in which Luther preached during the Reformation, was married, and baptized his six children

Lunch, on own

Explore Luther’s well-preserved house where he and his family lived (it contains many Reformation relics, including Luther’s desk, his pulpit, and first editions of his books) and the Renaissance mansion of Philip Melanchthon

Evening dinner and overnight

Day 7*Berlin*(B,D)
